

Month Eight | Syllabus

Soul of Wellness: Who Am I And What Do I Want

Dates: April 8-April 29 (Reflection paper due April 22)

Open house April 22

Title:

Resilience and Hope: Power and Limitations of Our Beliefs

Intention of Session:

1. Look at and understand the power of belief with respect to causation and implications
2. Begin to relax our set beliefs and open to a larger context
3. Increase our resilience by expanding how we explain adversity in our lives
4. Enable us to open more fully into accountability and getting more of what we want
5. Develop a realistic and useful definition of hope

Post Zoom Reflections:

1. Work this month with presence and compassion: How presence? How compassion?
2. What changes are you going through at this time in your life? What stage of change are you in?
3. Are you suffering from compassion fatigue? How might you come to a different relationship with the suffering of others while still remaining compassionate?
4. Listen to someone fully with the intention to understand consciously several times this couple of weeks.
5. Allow what you discovered in the “basement” to settle. Journal your thoughts.

Pre-work:

Reading:

1. Re-read pages 43-55 in The Five Invitations “The Maturation of Hope”
2. Die Wise by Stephen Jenkinson “The Tyrant Hope” pgs 117-136
3. Loving What Is by Byron Katie pgs 1-31 and 80-103. This is optional but gives another set of questions and construct to develop resilience.
4. “I Never Promised You a Rose Garden” from “Kitchen Table Wisdom” by Rachel Naomi Remen
